VALLEJO, CA – In anticipation of the incoming weather, the City of Vallejo will open an overnight warming shelter for those seeking respite from the cold and rain today, Monday, January 9, and Tuesday, January 10. The shelter will open in the evenings from 8:00 pm to 7:00 am the following morning.

The shelter will be located in the Vallejo room at 505 Santa Clara Street, on the backside of City Hall, just below the JFK Library.

Thanks to the generosity of our partners at SolTrans, those seeking transportation to and from the warming shelter will be provided with a free bus ride by simply mentioning to the driver that they are "traveling to or from the Vallejo warming shelter."

Additionally, participants are encouraged to bring their own blankets, although there will be a limited number of blankets and pillows available. In addition, participants will be limited to bringing in one small bag of personal items as space is limited.
